

Photo Release - Consent for Publicity Form

QuakerBridgeHacks must permit the publication of member names, testimonials, interviews and/or photographs for its own publicity or at the request of media including but not limited to newspapers, magazines, tv, web, and motion pictures. Names may also be included in lists of recognition for accomplishment. Concerning website postings, the State of New Jersey requires us to provide you with the following information:

As you are aware, there are potential dangers associated with the posting of personally identifiable information on a website since global access to the internet does not allow us to control who may access such information. These dangers have always existed; however, we as an educationally-based non-profit do want to celebrate you, your child, and his/her work. The law requires that we ask for your permission to use information about your child. Pursuant to law, we will now release any personally identifiable information without prior consent from you as a parent/guardian.

I give QuakerBridgeHacks and Quaker Bridge Learning Center my permission to publish in print, electronic, or video format the likeness or image of myself and my child. I release all claims against QuakerBridgeHacks and Quaker Bridge Learning Center with respect to copyright ownership and publication including any claim for compensation related to use of the materials.

General Guidelines: It is recommended that a release be obtained when photographing or videotaping a minor (under 18). Parent or guardian signatures are required; signatures of minors are not sufficient. When images are published, QuakerBridgeHacks and Quaker Bridge Learning Center will take cautionary steps to provide minimum identifying information and will not use specific street or mailing addresses, email addresses, or phone numbers. Signed release forms are not needed when subjects are in public places such as fairgrounds or parks. It is the responsibility of the photographer or videographer to obtain signed release forms and maintain records. If you have questions, please contact QuakerBridgeHacks at contact@qbhacks.org.
